CAUGHNAWAGA BEATEN.

Stewards Disqualify Arklirta and Set Knapp Down for Foul.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 11.-In spite of the heat, humidity and rain, under the combined influences of which Saratoga's midsummer splendor dripped and drooped, there were plenty of incidents in the course of the afternoon's racing to offset the general lassitude.

The defeat of Caughnawaga in a handicap at one mile and a quarter was one of them. The disqualification of Arklirta, with the circumstances leading up to it, was another, and the defeat of the heaviest played favorite of the day brought to a climax an afternoon of general

Caughnawaga, the winner of the Saratoga Handicap, was asked to take up ten pounds more than he carried on that occasion, and, although his field was inferior to that which he led home then, he was unable to repeat his performance, and had to be whipped out to finish third to Glen Echo and Sonoma Belle.

Caughnawaga seemed so distinctly the class of the race that he was chosen to carry the public money, despite the concession he was compelled to make. Many believe, moreover, that he would have succeeded in his task if Redfern had handled him as cleverly as he did in his race of the other day. Caughnawaga seemed to have speed only in spots, and was seesawed about until his chances were lost.

Glen Echo went out in front and set a pace that had all of his opponents driving hard to get to him before the quarter pole was reached, and none of them succeeded. Sonoma Belle, with a feather on her back, came nearest to it, and she was beaten decisively. Caughnawaga responded to Redfern's whip, and, apparently having dropped out of it entirely, came on again in time to take third place.

The disqualification of Arklirta, the two-yearold plater, owned by Frank Farrell, occurred in the renewal of the Troy, a selling stake, at five and one-half furlengs.

In the drive through the stretch Rustling Silk and Arklirta shook off the field, and apparently had the race between them. At the last sixteenth pole, Knapp, on the Farrell colt, tried to squeeze through on the rail, and, failing to do so, he was compelled to pull up.

Those who supported the colt naturally supposed that when Rustling Silk had won and Knapp had gone into the stand, they still stood an excellent chance of winning on a disqualification. This hope became almost a certainty when the signal was given to change the numbers.

Instead of placing Arklirta first, however, the stewards removed his number altogether, and substituted that of Adonis, which had finished third. The people who had played Arklirta immediately rose and declared in profane and spontaneous earnestness that they had received the "double cross." Those who had not seen what had happened earlier in the race did think some such mystic emblem had been handed some such mystic emblem had been handed them.

As a matter of fact, the stewards disqualified Arklitta because Knapp, his rider, drew his whip and deliberately cut Baird across the back with it as the latter tried to pass him on Muffins. The foul was so flagrant that they had no other alternative, and they not only disqualified the boy's mount, but put him down for a week and fined him $200.

In the quality of the fields the racing was not above that usually provided on Fridays, and, with the exception of the handicap, little class was represented in the six contests.

The prettlest finish of the day was in the fifth. King Rese and Knight of Rhodes fought it out on even terms, the latter getting the decision by a head. Knapp rode three winners.

SYSONBY IS FAVORITE.

Betting at Saratoga Is 1 to 2 That He Will Beat Oiseau.

[ST TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 11.—Unless rain prevents to-morrow should bring about the best day's racing of the entire year. The card is prodigal in stakes, and each stake gives promise of splendid racing. The renewals are those of the Great Republic, at one and one-quarter miles; the Hopeful, for two-year-olds, at six furlongs, and the Shillelah Steeplechase,

In the Great Republic, Sysonby, with 119 pounds, and Olseau, with 116 pounds, will meet for the first time, and will possibly decide the question of three-year-old supremacy. The Hopeful will bring together nine youngsters, with Burgomaster and Mohawk II sharing top weights, with 130 pounds each. In the Shillelah, Seahorse II, the Australian steeplechaser, which carried Mr. Cotton's colors in the Liverpool Grand National, will meet Mr. Widener's Gatebell, with a slight pull in the weights. So keen has been the discussion as to which of these horses is the better that the which of these horses is the better that the steeplechase men will be quite as well satisfied if the other five named to start are withdrawn. "Diamond" Jim Brady made a vallant effort to-day to get Mars Cassidy to forget the suspension of six days he had imposed upon O'Nell in order that the jockey might ride Oiseau. Mr. Cassidy said he was willing if the stewards were. The latter, however, refused to overrule the starter, and Mr. Brady was compelled to substitute Redfern.

In the overnight betting Sysonby is quoted at 1 to 2 and Oiseau at 4 to 1. Jimmie Rowe, the trainer, said this afternoon that if the going was bad he would not start the Meiton coit. It is expected that the programme will bring together the greatest crowd seen here since the racing restoration of Saratoga.

The infield for the schooling of steeplechasers, was thrown open for the first time this year, and brought out a large crowd of men and women. The work of Thomas Hitchcock, Jr.'s, three-year-old coit Paul Jones, E. D. Merrell's Valley Forge and Pagan Bey was decidedly the best of the day.

This afternoon Andrew Miller bought Sandy D. from H. M. Ziegier for $10,000, and the colt will carry the former's colors in the Hopeful. Gwynn Tompkins also bought the two-year-old coit Sunglow, from Bill Daly, paying about $2,000 for him.

DOUBLES AT LONGWOOD.

Alexander and Hackett to Meet Wrenn and Fincke in Final.

Boston, Aug. 11.-Lawn tennis at Longwood to-day consisted entirely of matches in doubles, and five events left to-night F. B. Alexander and H. H. Hackett and G. L. Wrenn and R. Fincke, all of New-York, to compete in the finals for the Eastern championship. The winners will meet the Western champions at Newport on August 22.

The progress of Wrenn and Fincke through the tournament has thus far been an easy one, all the matches being decided in straight sets. The hardest contest came this afternoon, when they met Clarence Hobart and W. C. Grant, and, while they had to exert themselves considerably more than on previous days, still no extra sets were necessary, although the second went through sixteen games. The pair are the favorites in the finals.

The best contest of the day was that between Alexander and Hackett and R. D. Little and R. Le Roy, which was started in the forenoon, but was not finished until 1:30 o'clock. Alexander and partner took the first sets with such ease that the reversal of form, which developed in the next two sets, which went to Little and Le Roy, made a defeat seem almost certain.

In the fourth set Alexander played a dashing game, his returns being swift and sure, and his smashing unreturnable. Within a few minutes the match had been squared and the fifth set had been started.

Again it looked like Little and Le Roy, as Hackett's weakness gave them a lead of 3 games to 1, but Le Roy suddenly weakened, and, by driving at him continually, Alexander and Hackett were able to bring the games up to 4 all, and eventually after many long rallies to take the next two and with them the set and In the afternoon Alexander and Hackett met Horton and Godman, of the local club, and won easily in straight sets.

No attempt was made to run off any of the single events, as three of the players left in the semi-finals were engaged in matches in

The weather was hot and sultry, and again the players finished the day in an exhausted condition. The summary:

Eastern doubles (semi-final round)—F. B. Alexander and H. H. Hackett defeated K. Horton and A. Codman, 6-1, 6-0, 6-4; G. L. Wrenn and R. Fincke defeated C. Hobert and W. C. Grant, 6-4, 9-7, 6-4.

At a meeting of the committee this afternoon F. B. Alexander, one of the contestants in the semi-final round of singles, announced his default to R. D. Little, in order that he might play with Hackett in the finals in doubles to-morrow.

Mr. Alexander was unwilling to play in two, and possibly three, matches to-morrow.

The committee them arranged for the other

The committee then arranged for the other semi-final match between C. Hobart and E. W. Leonard in the forenoon, and the finals in singles and doubles in the afternoon.

Playing with as much vigor yesterday as lassitude the day before, the Highlanders defeated Chicago at American League Park by a score of Elberfeld caused the crowd to moan and groan and say all sorts of unpleasant things, in the third inning, when he made a high throw over Chase's head of Green's drive, on which the runner made a circuit of the bases.

In the sixth inning, however, with the first we men up out, he sent out a three bagger that got Dougherty and Keeler across the plate, Dougherty heat out a great stop by Dunden, and Keeler got his base on balls.

Elberfeld, with the exception of two wild throws, played a pretty fielding game. In the second inning, with lightning speed, he got Callahan's slow bouncer to Chase in time to retire the runner. A little later he made a good stop of Donohue's hot drive, but threw wide to Chase.
Williams was cheered to the echo in the first inning for making a wonderful left hand jump-ing catch of Green's liner. Enthusiasm greeted Green's good running catch of Yeager's drive in the second inning. Orth and White, the opposing pitchers, were in fine form. A double header between the nines will be played at the park to-day. The score:
